

ANIMAL PRODUCTION SCIENCE

CONTENTS Volume 61, Issue 9–10, 2021, 821–1047

LAYER HEN WELFARE

Foreword

Layer hen welfare

P. H. Hemsworth, A. J. Tilbrook, D. L. M. Campbell and A. D. Fisher i–i

Implications of Production Systems for Hen Welfare

Cage production and laying hen welfare

P. H. Hemsworth 821–836

Welfare implications for barn (and aviary) egg production systems

M. Singh and P. J. Groves 837–847

Free-range egg production: its implications for hen welfare

D. L. M. Campbell, M. S. Bari and J.-L. Rault 848–855

Impact of Development, Growth and Production on Hen Welfare

Advances in genetic selection and breeder practice improve commercial layer hen welfare

G. Underwood, D. Andrews and T. Phung 856–866

Incubation, hatchery practice and the welfare of layer hens

G. Underwood, D. Andrews, T. Phung and L. E. Edwards 867–875

Rearing conditions of laying hens and welfare during the laying phase

E. C. Jongman 876–882

Skeletal health of layers across all housing systems and future research directions for Australia

D. L. M. Campbell 883–892

Nutrition, feeding and laying hen welfare

W. L. Bryden, X. Li, I. Ruhnke, D. Zhang and S. Shini 893–914

Implications of Husbandry and Behaviour for Hen Welfare

Natural behaviours, their drivers and their implications for laying hen welfare

P. H. Hemsworth and L. E. Edwards 915–930

Stress, health and the welfare of laying hens

A. J. Tilbrook and A. D. Fisher 931–943

The impact of management, husbandry and stockperson decisions on the welfare of laying hens in Australia

L. E. Edwards and P. H. Hemsworth 944–967

Current methods and techniques of beak trimming laying hens, welfare issues and alternative approaches

P. C. Glatz and G. Underwood 968–989

Causes of feather pecking and subsequent welfare issues for the laying hen: a review

G. M. Cronin and P. C. Glatz 990–1005

Welfare issues associated with moulting of laying hens

P. C. Glatz and A. J. Tilbrook 1006–1012

Continued on next page

Impact of Health and Disease on Hen Welfare

Non-infectious diseases and laying hen welfare

P. J. Groves 1013–1017

Welfare implications of bacterial and viral infectious diseases for laying hens

A. H. Noormohammadi 1018–1030

Impact of parasites on Australian laying hen welfare

P. J. Groves 1031–1036

Impact of antibiotic use and disease risks on Australian laying hen welfare

P. J. Groves and G. Underwood 1037–1041

Euthanasia of laying hens: an overview

E. C. Jongman and A. D. Fisher 1042–1047