

2 EditorialsFrom the Editor

- 2 Catering for vulnerable populations: customised care
Felicity Goodyear-Smith
- 3 Erratum: Back to Back column in our December 2014 issue—correction to reference

Guest Editorial

- 4 International perspective: reducing hearing loss
Shelly Chadba

5 Original Scientific PapersQuantitative Research

- 5 Estimated prevalence of hearing loss and provision of hearing services in Pacific Island nations
Michael Sanders, Natasba Houghton, Ofa Dewes, Judith McCool, Peter Thorne
- 16 Who attends Dunedin's free clinic? A study of patients facing cost barriers to primary health care access Lik Lob, Susan Dovey
- 24 The effect of ethnicity on different ways of expressing cardiovascular treatment benefits and patient decision-making Manjri Raval, Felicity Goodyear-Smith, Susan Wells
- 34 Nurses' reported use of standing orders in primary health care settings
Jill Wilkinson
- 42 Management of diabetes by primary health care nurses in Auckland, New Zealand
Barbara Daly, Bruce Arroll, Timothy Kenealy, Nicolette Sheridan, Robert Scragg

Qualitative Research

- 50 'He said he had been out doing the traffic': general practitioner perceptions of sexually transmitted infection and HIV testing strategies for men
Martin Woodbridge, Anthony Dowell, Lesley Gray

Mixed Method Research

- 57 Feasibility of an after-school group-based exercise and lifestyle programme to improve cardiorespiratory fitness and health in less-active Pacific and Māori adolescents Yongchie Chansavang, C Raina Elley, Brigid McCaffrey, Chloe Davidson, Ofa Dewes, Lance Dalleck

Short Report

- 65 Chlamydia trachomatis screening in pregnancy in New Zealand: translation of national guidelines into practice
Michelle Wise, Lynn Sadler, Alec Ekeroma

71 Back to Back

- 71 Lead maternity care needs to be embedded in general practice
Yes: Ben Gray; No: Karen Guillard

76 Continuing Professional Development

- 76 String of PEARLS about neurology
- 76 Cochrane Corner: Antihypertensive drugs for mild hypertension: questionable benefits
Megan Arroll
- 77 Potion or Poison? Cinnamon
Nataly Martini
- 78 Nuggets of Knowledge: Long-term antibiotics to reduce COPD exacerbations: pros and cons
Linda Bryant

81 Ethics

- 81 The ethics of treating depression in pregnancy
Susan Hatters Friedman

84 Viewpoint

- 84 Peer support workers: an untapped resource in primary mental health care
Juan Perez, Jacqui Kidd

88 About the Journal of Primary Health Care