

my request, kindly revised the draft report, that the register resembled Dewey's system.—Yours faithfully,

ALEXR. WM. MILLIGAN.

105 William-street, Melbourne, 31/3/13.

[The editors regret the meagre report of the proceedings of the session, especially on such an historical occasion as the presentation of the Union's "Check-list." The omissions, &c., were owing to circumstances over which the editors had no control, and they thank Mr. Milligan for his corrections. However, with becoming modesty, Mr. Milligan makes no reference to a special vote of thanks which, the editors learn, was accorded to him at the session, and should have been previously recorded.—EDS.]

Editors' Note.

MEMBERS contributing notes or articles to The Emu are expected in future to use the nomenclature in accordance with the "Official Check-list." Contributors are also kindly invited, when practicable, to type-write their articles, and thus assist the editors (whose leisure or private time is exceedingly limited) in their purely honorary work.
