Figure S1 – Proportions of medical practitioners reporting aggression prevention and minimisation actions in their main workplace by doctor type

1. Policies and procedures
2. Warning signs
3. Alerts to high risk
4. Service access restrictions
5. Incident reporting systems
6. Education and training
Figure S2 – Proportions of medical practitioners reporting aggression prevention and minimisation actions in their main workplace by main workplace

Public hospitals

Private hospitals

- 1. Duress alarms
- 2. Optimised clinician escape
- 3. Optimised patient waiting
- 4. Facility access restrictions
- 5. Building security systems
- 6. After-hours & off-site safety
Private rooms

1. Policies and procedures
2. Warning signs
3. Alerts to high risk
4. Service access restrictions
5. Incident reporting systems
6. Education and training
7. Duress alarms
8. Optimised clinician escape
9. Optimised patient waiting
10. Facility access restrictions
11. Building security systems
12. After-hours & off-site safety

Other Workplaces

1. Policies and procedures
2. Warning signs
3. Alerts to high risk
4. Service access restrictions
5. Incident reporting systems
6. Education and training
7. Duress alarms
8. Optimised clinician escape
9. Optimised patient waiting
10. Facility access restrictions
11. Building security systems
12. After-hours & off-site safety