Re: “Patents, pills and politics: the Australia–United States Free Trade Agreement and the Pharmaceutical Benefits Scheme”, by Ken Harvey, (Aust Health Rev 2004, vol. 28, no. 2, pp. 218-226).

Under the heading “A brief history of patent law relevant to pharmaceuticals”, in the second paragraph, the second sentence was: “Before TRIPS, many developing countries provided no patent protection on pharmaceutical products, or they recognised patents on products but not process”. The corrected version should be “...process but not products”.
