

Index

A

Asian dairy industries 1–3

B

best management practices for large farms 143–77

best management practices for smallholder dairy farms 103–42

C

case study of Indonesian dairy feedlot 220–6

case study of Malaysian smallholder dairy farms 217–20

checklist for planning dairy sheds 60–3

checklist for current herd management 136–42

constraints to smallholder dairy farms in Asia 28–37, 249–52

cooling cows 56–8, 163–70

cow comfort 163–70

cow signals 182–8

current milk yields 131–2

D

Dairy Smallholder Innovation Program 241–7

disease management 158–60

F

FAO course on feeding management 264–6

farm business management 205–26

free stalls 73–9

future directions for smallholder dairy farms 267–70

G

Golden Rules for tropical smallholder dairy farming 111–21

H

high technology 256–9

human resources 95–101

K

key performance indicators 121–31

M

milking management for large farms 176–7

milking parlour on large farms 89–92

O

observation skills 179–91

P

persistence of milk yields 174–6

physical features of large-scale farms 65–9

physical features of smallholder dairy farms 41–60

pros and cons of large-scale dairy farms 18–22

R

- record keeping 104–9
- regional development of smallholder dairy farms 227–47
- reproductive management 160–3
- risk in tropical dairy farming 253–6

S

- strategies to increase milk production 15–17
- surplus stock 201–3

T

- tie stalls 50–3
- tropical dairy systems 11–15
- tunnel ventilation barns 87–9

W

- welfare of cows 193–201
- ‘words of wisdom’ 259–64

Y

- young stock management 148–58