

168 Editorials*From the Editor

- 168 Modern epidemics and gifts for humanity
Felicity Goodyear-Smith

Guest Editorials

- 170 Methamphetamine—what primary care practitioners need to know
Brian R McAvooy

177 Original Scientific Papers*Quantitative Research

- 177 Are there disparities in care in people with diabetes? A review of care provided in general practice
Ross Lawrenson, Veronique Gibbons, Grace Joshy, Peter Choi
- 184 Use of aspirin and statins for cardiovascular risk reduction in New Zealand: The residential care story
Jae Bon Hoem, Ngaire Kerse, Shane Scabill, Simon Moyes, Charlotte Chen, Kathy Peri, Carmel Hughes

Mixed Method Research

- 190 What makes Care Plus effective in a provincial Primary Health Organisation? Perceptions of primary care workers
Kyle Eggleton, Tim Kenealy
- 198 Perspectives of general practitioners towards evaluation and treatment of cardiovascular diseases among older people
Michael Weiner, Susan Wells, Ngaire Kerse

Qualitative Research

- 207 Barriers to accessing specialist care for older people with chronic obstructive pulmonary disease in rural New Zealand
Michelle Hopley, Margaret Horsburgh, Kathy Peri
- 215 The reality of subclinical hypothyroidism in general practice
Veronique Gibbons, Steven Lillis, John Conaglen, Ross Lawrenson
- 222 Why don't patients with diagnosed diabetes attend a free 'Get Checked' annual review?
Tesa Porter, Clem Le Lièvre, Ross Lawrenson

226 Improving Performance

Cardiovascular risk assessment: Audit findings from a nurse clinic—a quality improvement initiative
Sarah Waldron, Margaret Horsburgh, C Raina Elley

232 Back to Back

A polypill is the solution to the pharmacological management of cardiovascular risk
Yes C Raina Elley; No Les Toop

237 Continuing Professional Development

- 237 String of PEARLS about smoking cessation
- 237 Cochrane Corner: Should we treat patients with subclinical hypothyroidism?
Veronique Gibbons
- 238 Charms & Harms: Devil's Claw (Harpagophytum procumbens)
Joanne Barnes
- 239 Cochrane Corner: Combined inhalers are more effective than beta-agonist alone for chronic obstructive pulmonary disease but with some potential harms
Bruce Arroll
- 240 Pounamu: Non-financial barriers to primary health care services for Maori
Peter Jansen

241 Essays

Fresh eyes for chronic care management
Anna Poutu Fay

244 Ethics

Making people be healthy
Timothy Martin Wilkinson

247 Letters to the Editor*249 Book Reviews

- 249 The Palliative Care Handbook—Incorporating the Nurse Maude Palliative Care Formulary: Guidelines for clinical management and symptom control—Rod Macleod, Jane Vella-Brincat and AD (Sandy) Macleod
Reviewers: Anne Denton and Bruce Foggo
- 250 Hauora Maori Standards of Health IV: A study of the years 2000–2005—Edited by B Robson and R Harris
Reviewer: Lance O'Sullivan

251 Gems of NZ Primary Health Care Research*254 About the Journal of Primary Health Care