

256 Editorials*From the Editor

- 256 Improving men's health benefits us all
Felicity Goodyear-Smith

Guest Editorial

- 258 Developing men's awareness of health issues
Lannes Johnson

261 Original Scientific Papers*Quantitative Research

- 261 Gender differences in general practice utilisation in New Zealand
Santosh Jatrana, Peter Crampton
- 270 Getting back the missing men of Aotearoa: declining gender inequality in NZ life expectancy
Peter Sandiford
- 278 Human papillomavirus and papillomavirus vaccines: knowledge, attitudes and intentions of general practitioners and practice nurses in Christchurch
Judith Henninger
- 286 The cost of immunising at the general practice level
Nikki Turner, Paul Rouse, Stacey Airey, Helen Petousis-Harris
- 297 Variation in Partnership Health general practice enrolment data related to need and hospital and national records on ethnicity
Laurence Malcolm, Ross Barnett

Qualitative Research

- 302 New Zealand men's health care: are we meeting the needs of men in general practice?
Eileen McKinlay, Marjan Kljakovic, Lynn McBain

311 Improving Performance

- 311 Do invitations to attend Well Man Checks result in increased male health screening in primary health care?
Pete Barwell
- 315 More allopurinol is needed to get gout patients <0.36 mmol/L: a gout audit in the form of a before-after trial
Bruce Arroll, Merran Bennett, Nicola Dalbeth, Dilanka Hettiarachchi, Ben Cribben, Ginie Shelling

319 Back to Back

- 319 New Zealand should introduce population screening for prostate cancer using PSA testing
Yes Robin Smart; No David Tulloch

323 Continuing Professional Development

- 323 Charms & Harms: Saw palmetto
Joanne Barnes
- 324 String of PEARLS about low back pain
- 324 Cochrane Corner: NSAIDs are effective in the common cold for pain and sneezing but not other symptoms
Bruce Arroll
- 325 Pounamu: Strategies to address disparities in access to care must be multidimensional
Peter Jansen

326 Essays

- 326 Who shall decide: telling the truth and avoiding the law—patient consent in the millennium
Bryan Frost
- 328 Cardiovascular disease risk profile tools and New Zealand—the best way forward?
Pauline Boland, Helen Moriarty

332 Ethics

- 332 Values transparency and inter-professional communication
David Seedhouse

335 Letters to the Editor*339 Book Review

- 339 Healthy Bastards—Dave Baldwin
Reviewer: Lannes Johnson

340 Gems of New Zealand Primary Health Care Research*342 About the Journal of Primary Health Care