

Galahs.—A couple of years ago there was a Galah here among the flock that was white and red instead of grey and red. That summer I saw it quite a number of times, but never since. Another Galah up here one summer was always to be seen with a flock of Corellas whether feeding, watering or flying about.—ANGUS ROBINSON, R.A.O.U., Onslow, W.A.