

Australian Journal of Primary Health

CONTENTS Volume 15 • Issue 2 • 2009

EDITORIAL 115

RESEARCH

Evaluation of a geriatric day rehabilitation centre: subjective and objective outcomes in community-dwelling older adults

A. Foley, S. Hillier and R. Barnard 117

Strengthening primary health care and health promotion in Sri Lanka's schools: the need for a comprehensive national policy

Umanga de Silva and Simon Barraclough 123

Methodological issues in the design and conduct of public health computer assisted telephone interview surveys: the case of informal carers in Australia

Nina Van Dyke 132

Do older people perceive cancer prevention and early detection to be worthwhile? Implications for prevention

Irene Ngune, Peter Howat, Bruce Maycock and Terry Slevin 139

Primary care implications of parents' nutrition beliefs

Simone Pettigrew 146

Tobacco control practices among Aboriginal health professionals in Western Australia

Albert A. G. Pilkington, Owen B. J. Carter, Alexander S. Cameron and Sandra C. Thompson 152

Understanding help seeking for mental health in rural South Australia: thematic analytical study

Joanne. E. Collins, Helen Winefield, Lynn Ward and Deborah Turnbull 159

Reintegrating young offenders into the community through discharge planning: a review of interventions and needs of youth in secure care

Anne Wilson and Phillip Tully 166

PRACTICE & INNOVATION

Consulting consumers to develop marketing and recruitment strategies for a diabetes prevention program

Dianne Berryman, Marie Gill, Jonathan Pietsch and Hannah Halloran 173

BOOK REVIEWS

A Practice Manual for Community Nursing in Australia

Reviewed by Lindsay Carey and Priscilla Robinson 180

Community Nursing in Australia

Reviewed by Lindsay Carey and Priscilla Robinson 182

Caring for Hindu Patients

Reviewed by Hariharan Rathinam and Lindsay Carey 184