

Contents

	List of contributors	ix
1	Introduction: contested country – regional natural resource management in Australia Marcus Lane, Bruce Taylor and Cathy Robinson	1
Part 1	Policy, promises and practices of regional resource management and governance	13
2	From government to governance: explaining and assessing new approaches to NRM Brian W Head	15
3	Invest, divest or empower: interpretations and practices of regionalisation in Australia’s savannas Bruce Taylor	29
4	Can community-based NRM work at the scale of large regions? Exploring the roles of nesting and subsidiarity Graham R Marshall	43
5	Will Regionalisation achieve integrated Natural Resource Management? Insights from recent South Australian experience Marcus Lane, Anna Haygreen, Tiffany H Morrison and Jill Woodlands	59
6	Interrogating devolved natural resource management: challenges for good governance Julie Davidson and Michael Lockwood	75
7	Accounting for performance: public environmental governance in the shadow of the future Tabatha Wallington and Geoffrey Lawrence	91

Part 2	Community engagement, local participation and regional capacity	109
8	Seeing Engagement Practitioners as Deliberative Hinges to improve Landholder Engagement Toni Darbas, Timothy F Smith and Emma Jakku	111
9	Community engagement in natural resource management: experiences from the Natural Heritage Trust Phase 2 Megan Farrelly	129
10	Landcare bowling alone: finding a future in the 'fourth' phase Erlina Compton, Katrin Prager and Bob Beeton	147
11	Indigenous natural resource management: overcoming marginalisation produced in Australia's current NRM model Rosemary Hill and Liana Williams	161
12	Decentralised governance for natural resource management: capacity challenges in Australia and Canada Lisa Robins and Rob de Loë	179
Part 3	Learning and adapting from regional and national experiences	199
13	On a learning journey to nowhere? The practice and politics of evaluating outcomes of natural resource management in northern Queensland regions Cathy Robinson, Bruce Taylor and Richard Margerum	201
14	Reviewing adaptive management through a wicked lens Catherine Allan	215
15	Lessons from the Australian experiment 2002–08: the road ahead for regional governance Tiffany H Morrison	227

Part 4	Conclusion	241
16	The changing and contested governance of Australia's environmental heritage	243
	Cathy Robinson, Marcus Lane and Bruce Taylor
	Index	247