

Appendix 1. Questions for Knowledge of AIDS and STDs

AIDS knowledge:

- 1) Can a person who is already infected with the AIDS virus appear to be healthy?
- 2) Can a person who is already infected with the AIDS virus but still appears healthy spread the disease to other people?
- 3) Can people catch AIDS by exchanging clothes, eating from the same dish, or shaking hands with the person who is already infected with the virus?
- 4) Can an infected woman who is pregnant spread the AIDS virus to her unborn baby?
- 5) Can a person catch AIDS by urinating in the same place as a person infected with AIDS?
- 6) Do some Indonesians already have AIDS?
- 7) Can women who work like you do become infected with AIDS?
- 8) Can AIDS be prevented by taking medicine/getting injections regularly?
- 9) If a condom is used during sex, can it be used to prevent AIDS, as long as it does not break?
- 10) Can a person who gets AIDS be cured?
- 11) Is AIDS spread through:
 - a) body sweat
 - b) body contact
 - c) kissing on the mouth
 - d) intercourse without using a condom
 - e) injection drug use
 - f) having abortions (equipment)
 - g) blood transfusion
 - h) injection using used needles
 - i) eating contaminated food
 - j) mosquito bites
- 1) Is AIDS always a fatal disease?

13) Is there any medication that can prolong the life of someone with AIDS?

STD knowledge

- 1) Can a person who is infected with a sexually transmitted disease look healthy (without symptoms)?
- 2) If all of your clients wear condoms, can you be protected against catching these diseases?
- 3) Can these diseases be prevented by taking antibiotics, such as tetracycline, before or after having sex?
- 4) Can sexually transmitted diseases be prevented or treated by drinking jamu (traditional medicine)?
- 5) Can these diseases be prevented by cleaning the genitals after sex?
- 6) Can these diseases be prevented by eating a lot of vegetables?
- 7) Can these diseases be prevented by using a net when sleeping?
- 8) Can these diseases be prevented by not drinking from the same glass as someone who has STD?
- 9) Can these diseases be prevented by not changing sexual partners?
- 10) Can these diseases cause sterility/ inability to get pregnant/ have children?
- 11) If a doctor gives medicine for a sexually transmitted disease, do you have to continue the medicine until it is finished, even if symptoms are gone beforehand?
- 12) Can some of these diseases lead to death?