

90 Editorials*From the Editor

- 90 Time for a change of guard
Felicity Goodyear-Smith
- 92 Erratum: Back to Back column March 2015

Guest Editorial

- 93 A drug by any other name... generic and brand-name drugs are clinically equivalent
Steven Morgan

94 Original Scientific Papers*Quantitative Research

- 94 The impact on health outcome measures of switching to generic medicines consequent to reference pricing: the case of olanzapine in New Zealand
Charon Lessing, Toni Ashton, Peter Davis
- 102 Prevalence of intimate partner violence disclosed during routine screening in a large general practice
Debs Higgins, Kathy Manhire, Bob Marshall
- 109 Investigation of fatigue by Australian general practice registrars: a cross-sectional study
Simon Morgan, Kim Henderson, Amanda Tapley, Allison Thomson, Jessica Wilson, John Scott, Neil Spike, Lawrie McArthur, Mieke van Driel, Parker Magin
- 117 Self-reported health-related quality of life of mental health service users with serious mental illness in New Zealand
Amanda Wheeler, Brian McKenna, Dominic Madell, Jeff Harrison, Kate Prebble, Elin Larsson, Lucy Dunbar, Ivana Nakarada-Kordic

Qualitative Research

- 124 How and why patients use acupuncture: an interpretive phenomenological study
Dan Jakes, Ray Kirk
- 130 Patient expectations for chronic pain management
Neela Bhana, Lee Thompson, John Alchin, Bronwyn Thompson
- 137 Midlife safer sex challenges for heterosexual New Zealand women re-partnering or in casual relationships
Trish Morison, Catherine Cook

Mixed Method Research

- 145 Dunedin's free clinic: an exploration of its model of care using case study methodology
Lik Lob, Chrystal Jaye, Susan Dovey, Hywel Lloyd, Joanne Rowe

Short Report

- 153 Health promotion funding, workforce recruitment and turnover in New Zealand
Sarah Lovell, Richard Egan, Lindsay Robertson, Karen Hicks

158 Back to Back

- 158 New Zealand doctors should be allowed to prescribe cannabis for pain
Yes: Paul Hardy; No: Tipu Aamir

162 Continuing Professional Development

- 162 String of PEARLS about cancer
- 162 Cochrane Corner: Personalised care planning is beneficial for some long-term conditions
Megan Arroll
- 163 Potion or Poison? Cloves
Nataly Martini
- 164 Nuggets of Knowledge: Mild hyponatraemia... not so innocuous
Linda Bryant

167 Ethics

- 167 Ageing is not for the faint-hearted: are we making it worse? Polypharmacy-related harm in the elderly
Katharine Wallis

169 Book Review

- 169 Murder That Wasn't: The case of George Gwaze—Felicity Goodyear-Smith
Reviewed by Glynn Owens

170 Viewpoint

- 170 Poverty, medicines and health care: It's the little things...
Pauline Norris, Brendon McIntosh, June Tordoff, Leanne Te Karu, Shib Yen Chang
- 172 Health literacy and patient portals
Yulong Gu, Martin Orr, Jim Warren

176 About the Journal of Primary Health Care