

A peer-reviewed international journal that publishes articles relevant to public health and the practice of medicine in Papua New Guinea and other countries in the South Pacific.

> REASONS TO PUBLISH

- High visibility and impact for your research
- Open Access under a choice of Creative Commons licences
- High quality author care, copy editing and production standards
- Rigorous and trustworthy peer review from experts in your field
- Submit to a not-for-profit publisher that is part of the scientific community
- Supported by 75 years of scholarly publishing experience

> JOURNAL SCOPE

The Journal publishes original research, reviews, case reports and other articles on all aspects of medicine and public health and encourages submissions of papers on new research from scientists, clinicians, and managers, especially those early in their career. The Journal is also interested in reports of projects that demonstrate better ways of delivery care and promoting prevention.

Papua New Guinea Medical Journal is published by CSIRO Publishing on behalf of the Medical Society of Papua New Guinea.

> ABOUT CSIRO PUBLISHING

As a not-for-profit, editorially independent business unit within the Commonwealth Scientific and Industrial Research Organisation (CSIRO), we are proudly part of the research community.
